

MANY FARMERS AT ROUND-UP FRIDAY

Land Clearing Show Instructive—Prominent Speakers At Banquet

Friday, the last day of the land clearing demonstration here, was made the occasion for a "farmers' round-up" at the Crofoot farm on the western edge of the city. Farmers from all sections of the county and a large crowd of Rhinelander people assembled to witness the various methods of removing stumps and putting the land in readiness for the plow.

Farmers were given an opportunity to gain many valuable pointers in land clearing. Stump pulling machines of several types were shown in operation and agents of the Dupont Powder company gave lessons in the use of explosives. The exhibition was both entertaining and educational and all present regarded the day as one well spent.

During the noon hour a huge mess of chili con carne, the popular Mexican stew, was dished out to the hungry crowd. This savory dish was prepared by W. E. Vaughn, who as a chili mixer, has it all over any chef this side of the Rio Grande. He was assisted by Mons. John Remo, who served the trimmings. It was "hot stuff" but not a bit bad to take.

During the day a dummy made up to represent Mr. William Hohenzollern of Berlin, Germany, was placed upon a pile of blazing stumps and soon vanished in smoke. This "roasting" the Kaiser in effigy didn't seem to hurt anyone's feelings, although more than one of the spectators came near dying from laughter.

Friday's program closed a five days series of land clearing demonstrations by the crew of the "Stump Special" sent out by Wisconsin University. The demonstrations were conducted along practical lines and the farmers found them very instructive.

At the Oneida Hotel Friday evening a large number of men prominent in journalistic, railroading, banking and educational affairs of Wisconsin were guests of the Rhinelander Advancement association at a land clearing banquet.

Among those who spoke were Dean Hatch of Wisconsin University, Agricultural College, J. L. Sturdevant, editor of the Wausau Record, Herald, B. E. Walters of Mosinee, and E. O. Brown of this city. Judge Charles F. Smith acted as toastmaster.

THRIFT DAY IS SUNDAY, OCT. 14

Sunday, October 14 will be Conservation Day in the churches of Wisconsin if the pastors carry out the suggestions made by Magnus Swenson State Food Administrator.

Mr. Swenson has suggested that a sermon with "thrift" as a text will be valuable in the campaign for the conservation of food and has asked all the ministers of the state to set aside October 14, as a day upon which this lesson should be brought home to the people.

Reports from the state are that the second meatless day had been more widely observed than the first. In many cities all the hotels and restaurants served meatless meals for the first time.

SCHOOL FOR BOYS MAY ALSO COME

There is a possibility that not only will a girls' school be established at Stone Lake but a school for boys be located there as well.

Miss L. B. Broadbridge, who is at the head of the proposed girls' school, writes Postmaster Matt Stapleton that she has nearly decided to place the school at Stone Lake, although there are a few details pertaining to the proposition which have not been completed.

Miss Broadbridge states that she has a friend, who is seeking a location for a boys' school, and is considering a site in Oneida county.

Rhinelander people should make an effort to secure both schools for Stone Lake as they would mean a big thing in a business way for this city.

WOODRUFF MAN DROPS DEAD

Rev. William Wilson was called to Woodruff on Tuesday afternoon to preach a funeral sermon on Harry Scarles who dropped dead while at supper on Sunday evening. Deceased leaves a wife and eight children to mourn his departure.

SURPRISE DINNER FOR F. C. BINKLEY

Rhinelander Friends Are Guests At His Three Lakes Home Saturday

Saturday evening Mrs. Della Malcolm of Three Lakes gave a six o'clock dinner. It was in the nature of a surprise on her brother, F. C. Binkley, chairman of the town of Three Lakes. The invitations included all who were on the recent road inspection trip, and a few of Mr. Binkley's personal friends. Cars conveying the guests left Rhinelander at 4:30, Saturday afternoon. The party consisted of J. E. Smith, county road commissioner; John Mentlich, chairman of town of Little Lake; Arthur LeClaire, chairman of town of Lynn; Wm. Olson, chairman of town of Pelican; Senator W. T. Stevens, Judge C. F. Smith Jr., E. C. Sturdevant, clerk of the court; F. W. Means, E. H. Markham, F. S. Sargent, divisional highway engineer; Andrew Olson, supervisor of the first ward; J. M. Baker, supervisor of the fifth ward; J. J. Verage, county clerk; C. A. Hodgdon, A. S. Post, T. C. Wood, and S. J. Hamilton.

The party were met at Three Lakes by John G. Swartz of Hazelhurst, and C. H. Olson, member of the State Aid Road and Bridge committee. Shortly after the party arrived at Three Lakes Mr. Binkley drove into town in a jitney, as big as life and a nice looking lady by his side. While he was shaking hands, one of the party stole his car, lady, and all drove to Mr. Binkley's home. In the meanwhile Mr. Binkley was invited by the bunch to go to Grandon as he had failed to make that part of the trip on the recent road inspection. He begged them to take him home so that he might change his clothes, at least. To this his friends consented and agreed to accompany him there.

Upon arriving at Mr. Binkley's home the party found the table all set for a banquet for twenty-five people. It was such a spread as one might expect to find in one of the big New York hotels. The menu consisted of everything that would tickle the palate. The way the hungry guests fell to was good to see. After the feast Mr. Binkley was called upon to make an address which he did in a most creditable manner. His remarks were greatly appreciated by all assembled about the board. After a couple of hours spent in good fellowship the party left for Rhinelander at nine o'clock and arrived here about an hour later. Everyone had a royal good time and will remember the occasion as a bright spot in his life.

WANT TO CATCH OUR BIG MUSKIES

That's One Reason Why City League Chose Rhinelander For 1918 Meet

In August 1918 Rhinelander is to welcome the delegates of the league of Wisconsin Municipalities Convention in Rhinelander. The league has a membership of very nearly all of the cities of Wisconsin and the attendance at conventions is usually not less than 300. Rhinelander won out over Eau Claire and Manitowish in the choice for the convention city by a substantial majority vote. Mayor Clark was elected one of the Vice Presidents of the League.

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week nine of the city fathers attended the annual convention of the League of Wisconsin Municipalities at Racine. The delegation included Mayor Clark, the City Treasurer, City Attorney, City Engineer and Aldermen Goldstrand, Fletcher, P. Pecor, Gilligan and Noble. The city fathers report that Racine showed them the time of their several lives and trust that the people of Rhinelander can show to the League as fine a hospitality as did the citizens of Racine. The delegation was sent to the convention in the hope that they might learn a few things at the daily meetings and further, that they might succeed in persuading the League to hold its 1918 convention here so that Rhinelander, too, might extend its hospitality to the members and afford them each and all an opportunity to catch a 15 lb muskie.

That the delegation succeeded in its efforts to get the 1918 convention here may be attributed to the pioneer work done by the city delegation at the last convention in Oshkosh, to the good work done by the publicity committee consisting of Mayor Clark, Reeves and Morrill, to the very excellent persuasive powers and diligence of all the members of the delegation, and last, but not least, to the rousing speech of "welcome to Rhinelander" made by Mayor Clark. The Publicity Committee believe that the souvenir matchboxes had something to do with the success of the delegation; they say that "anyway they kept asking for more until they were all gone."

Rhinelander is to be congratulated that the League decided to hold its convention here and it is now up to Rhinelander that the members of the League may, in August 1918, congratulate themselves that the convention was held in Rhinelander.

Next Meeting at Rhinelander Racine Wis.—The convention of the Wisconsin League of Municipalities in session in Racine Friday refused to accept the report of the executive committee in the selection of the city for the 1918 convention. The executive committee reported in favor of Eau Claire, but the delegates demanded that a vote of the convention be taken and the convention city be decided upon. This was permitted by the chair and Rhinelander received 48 votes, Eau Claire, 20, and Manitowish 3.

The following league officers were elected: President, H. W. Adams, Beloit; Vice Pres., T. W. Thiesen, Racine; Sec. Treas., Ford MacGregor, Madison.

Board of Trustees, Daniel Hoan, Milwaukee; John Mulva, Oshkosh; Joseph Konkel, Superior; C. B. Clark, Neenah; H. W. Adams, Beloit.

Vice Presidents, H. A. Runkel, Burlington; John Kaiser, Port Washington; George Sayle, Madison; Hans A. Koenig, Wauwatosa; State Senator Schulz, Milwaukee; Mayor Hohensee, Fond du Lac; A. Bentley, La Crosse; H. E. Marquardt, Wausau; Emer Hall, Green Bay; G. E. Dee, Chippewa Falls; Grant V. Clark, Rhinelander.

BUYS CASE TRACTOR J. J. Reardon has just purchased of the T. C. Wood Hardware company a Case 9.18 kerosene tractor for use on his farm near this city. One of these tractors was also recently sold to Willis P. Jewell, one of the progressive farmers in the town of Crescent. The T. C. Wood Hardware company has the exclusive agency for Case tractors in Oneida county. The demonstrations of this tractor at the Oneida county fair showed that it is a great asset on a farm.

CHANGE IN ORCHESTRA In another part of this paper is an ad directing attention to the Rhinelander Ladies' Orchestra. Frances Osborne, manager. This organization is composed of the former members of the Hazel M. Crawford orchestra, with the exception of the director, Mr. E. K. Riek taking the place of Miss Hazel Crawford. For the latest and snappiest dance music call on these people. Phone 191-4 or postoffice box 182. P. L. Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Hildebrand and Miss Hazel Hildebrand attended the Hildebrand-Dimnick wedding in Alpena Saturday.

Postmaster Matt Stapleton informs the New North that the Rhinelander postoffice has just been made a central office for all the postoffices in Oneida county and a portion of Lincoln county. The central office furnishes supplies for all postoffices in its territory and likewise checks up all business of such offices.

Mr. Stapleton says that more help will be required in the local postoffice to conduct the increased business. The number of new employees to be added to the force is not known at this time.

Postoffices in the district of the central office here are Enterprise, Gage, Harshaw, Hazelhurst, Jennings, McNaughton, Minocqua, Monticello, Pelican Lake, Robbins, Starks, Three Lakes, Tomahawk, Tripoli and Woodruff.

Miss Dorothy Dimnick of Alpena, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dimnick, former Rhinelander residents, became the bride of Leo Hildebrand, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Hildebrand of this city, in Alpena Saturday morning.

The marriage was performed at ten o'clock by Rev. Father Francis Berg. The ceremony was a quiet one, only members of the respective families being present. Miss Hazel Hildebrand, the groom's sister, and John Dimnick, brother of the bride, were the attendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Hildebrand are spending the week in Minneapolis and are expected to arrive in Rhinelander Saturday. They will commence housekeeping 128 King St. and will be at home after November 1.

LEO HILDEBRAND JOINS BENEDICTS

Miss Dorothy Dimnick of Alpena, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dimnick, former Rhinelander residents, became the bride of Leo Hildebrand, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Hildebrand of this city, in Alpena Saturday morning.

The marriage was performed at ten o'clock by Rev. Father Francis Berg. The ceremony was a quiet one, only members of the respective families being present. Miss Hazel Hildebrand, the groom's sister, and John Dimnick, brother of the bride, were the attendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Hildebrand are spending the week in Minneapolis and are expected to arrive in Rhinelander Saturday. They will commence housekeeping 128 King St. and will be at home after November 1.

The bride until a few years ago resided with her parents in this city, where she has a wide circle of friends. She is a charming and accomplished young lady and will make an ideal wife.

Mr. Hildebrand is one of the substantial and esteemed young business men of this city. He is associated with his father in the furniture and undertaking business at 118 S. Brown street and has every prospect for a successful future.

That happiness may forever be the lot of the young couple is the wish of all who have their acquaintance.

Judge A. H. Reid deplores the fact that the walls and ceilings of the Oneida county court house are not decorated and says that something should be done along this line soon.

In talking with a New North reporter Tuesday Judge Reid stated that the amount required to decorate the court house would be money well spent. He suggested that steps should be taken toward securing appropriate pictures for the walls of the building. He declared that he is ready to start such a movement with the donation of a fine portrait of the late Judge Bardeen.

Judge Reid's suggestion is a good one and should be put into action without delay. No doubt other public spirited citizens would also make donations and it would not be long before a creditable collection of pictures would adorn the walls.

SOLDIERS BOOST FOR RHINELANDER

Rhinelander men like to tell their new friends in Waco that Rhinelander, a city of about 7,000 population, raised a company of 301 men and more than enough officers through the volunteer system. It's good advertising for the home of State Senator "Bill" Stevens—Milwaukee Sentinel.

EXTEND ROUTE

The Robbins Star Route has been extended to take effect October 15, from the Stacey school east to the Eagle River road and thence south to the Robbins postoffice. With the new extension practically all the northern part of Oneida county will have daily mail service on the star route.

FORD RACES ARE BIG ATTRACTION

Little Hennerly Cars Prove They Are There When It Comes To Speed

In the races at the fair grounds Sunday afternoon "the little old Fords" demonstrated that they are built for speed as well as service. Regardless of the chilly weather a large crowd assembled to see the local "Be Palmans" eat up the track in their doughty Hennerly cars. The attraction was arranged by the Oneida Garage, Ford agents here, and not only proved well worth the small admission fee, but was in itself a strong advertisement for the Ford car. $175 was hung up in prizes.

The program consisted of four races, namely, two and one-half mile, five mile, ten mile and novelty race. The latter was an event in which the cars traveled backward around the track and provoked no little mirth.

The results of the various events were as follows:

Two and One Half Mile Charles Belanger, first; Nick Hartman, second; Charles Gross, third; Frank Wilson, fourth; Roy McKenzie, fifth; Arthur Post, sixth.

Five Mile Charles Belanger, first; Nick Hartman, second; Charles Gross, third; Jay Russ, fourth; Frank Wilson, fifth.

Ten Mile Charles Gross, first; Charles Belanger, second; Nick Hartman, third; Frank Wilson, fourth.

Novelty Race A. Brooks, first; Nick Hartman, second; Roy McKenzie, third. It is probable that Will Gilligan proprietor of the Oneida Garage, will stage another Ford race program this fall before the weather becomes unfavorable.

SHOWS GRATITUDE FOR OLD FAVOR

Several years ago while D. H. Hart one of this city's merchants, was in business in Fort Atkinson, Wis., he accommodated a customer with a loan of five dollars. The man confessed to be in hard luck, with a sick wife and his story aroused Mr. Hart's sympathy. Aside from the money Mr. Hart gave the man about 10 dollars worth of merchandise out of his stock. During the course of a year the debt was paid and the man and his family moved west. As far as Mr. Hart was concerned the incident was closed and forgotten.

This morning when Mr. Hart was going over his mail he was astonished to open a letter from Medford, Ore., containing a check for $50. The letter read in part as follows:

"No doubt you have forgotten me, but I will never forget you and the kind turn you once did me. Since locating in the west good fortune has favored me and I am far from being in the bad fix that I was back in Fort Atkinson. I am enclosing a check for $50 which I feel is due you for that favor in 1909. It may have seemed small to you but it meant a lot to me. With best wishes to you and Mrs. Hart, I am yours always, MARTIN C."

The council accepted the report of J. D. Cole, chief of the fire department. Mr. Cole was also appointed city inspector of buildings. No definite action was taken on the subject of a municipal gravel pit proposed by Alderman Al. Hafner of the fourth ward. Mr. Hafner pointed out that it would be more economical for the city to have its own gravel pit than to pay the present prices, with prospects of further increases.

Alderman A. C. Danielson, who is on the city hall flag pole committee, gave the council some joyful news, when he announced that the pole would be placed in position soon. The pole has been strengthened at joints and Mr. Danielson gave the opinion that it can now be raised without any difficulty. That the staff will be floating "Old Glory" some time between now and February 30 there is little doubt.

The usual stock of city bills was acted upon by the council.

MRS. JOHN MARTIN

Death came to Mrs. John Martin at the family home on Messer St. Tuesday morning following an extended illness. She was 61 years old and is survived by a family. Mrs. Martin was a highly esteemed woman and during her residence in Rhinelander made many friends who deplore her death.

Wednesday the remains were taken to Wausau, Mrs. Martin's former home, where interment took place that afternoon.

DROWNS WHILE DUCK HUNTING

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Gwidt returned from Wausau Wednesday where they attended the funeral of Paul Westfall, a brother-in-law of Mr. Gwidt, who was drowned Sunday while duck hunting on a lake near Wausau.

The boat occupied by Mr. Westfall capsized. He sank instantly and did not again come to the surface. When his body was recovered there was a bruise on the forehead, indicating that he had struck some obstacle which may have caused immediate death.

Mr. Westfall was married about one year ago to Miss Mary Gwidt of Wausau, who has many friends in Rhinelander.

Total levy $111,175. Passed, October 2nd, 1917. Approved, October 3rd, 1917. Introduced by A. C. Danielson, Alderman.

Considerable other business came before the council, including a petition to gravel and oil Keenan St. This came in for much discussion but was finally granted, the improvements to be made next year.

City Attorney H. L. Reeves stated that the railroad companies had agreed to repair their crossings in the city and station flagmen at these crossings. Reasonable time was requested, however, by the companies in which to do this. Mr. Reeves will consult with the Soo line officials in regard to making the crossing at the red bridge more safe for the public.

Richard Guilkey, street commissioner, asked the council for one dollar per day increase in salary. City Attorney Reeves advised that this raise could be granted only thru the passing of an ordinance. No further action was taken.

The council accepted the report of J. D. Cole, chief of the fire department. Mr. Cole was also appointed city inspector of buildings. No definite action was taken on the subject of a municipal gravel pit proposed by Alderman Al. Hafner of the fourth ward. Mr. Hafner pointed out that it would be more economical for the city to have its own gravel pit than to pay the present prices, with prospects of further increases.

Catarrhal Cough

Mr. W. S. Brown, R. F. D. No. 4, Box 82, Rogersville, Tennessee, writes: "I feel it my duty to recommend Peruna to all sufferers of catarrh or cough. In the year 1923, I took a severe case of the la grippe. I then took a bad cough. I had taken all kinds of cough remedies but got no relief. I then decided to try Peruna. I used five bottles. After taking five bottles my cough stopped and my catarrh was cured. My average weight was 115 and now I weigh 118½. Any one suffering with catarrh in any form I will advise them to take Peruna."

Any one Suffering with Catarrh in Any form I will Advise them To take Peruna

Those who object to liquid medicines can procure Peruna Tablets.

VINOL MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG

Positive—Convincing Proof

We publish the formula of Vinol to prove convincingly that it has the power to create strength.

It Co. Liver and Blood Purifier, Iron and Magnesium Phosphates, Iron and Ammonium Citrate, Lime and Soda Glycophosphates, Caeasie.

Any woman who buys a bottle of Vinol for a weak, run-down, nervous condition and finds after giving it a fair trial it did not help her, will have her money returned.

You see, there is no guess work about Vinol. Its formula proves there is nothing like it for all weak, run-down, overworked, nervous men and women and for feeble old people and delicate children. Try it once and be convinced.

BADGER TROOPS ALL AT WACO

About 16,000 Men At Camp Ready For Fun Or Frolic

Camp MacArthur, Waco, Tex.—Wisconsin's troops, approximately 16,000 strong, are in camp. With the coming of the balance from the former Second regiment, the Badgers reported ready for a light or a frolic. They arrived at midday, Monday, first, but chipped. They received a hearty welcome as they pitched their tents along with other companies in the 127th and 128th Wisconsin regiments of the line. Non-commissioned officers are preparing for promotion to commissioned rank.

Two thousand of Wisconsin's selectmen, will be brought here next month from Camp Custer, Mich. They will be used to fill in the new divisions, to which the Wisconsin National guard will be attached. Another 2,000 selectmen from Michigan will also be sent here to bring the Michigan units up to the new division strength.

The first Wisconsin infantry, consisting of 1,765 men, and fifty officers, arrived Thursday.

Fourteen thousand selective army men will train here. An aviation company will be established along with an artillery range.

The third regiment from Wisconsin is hard at drill. It is now the One Hundred and Twenty-eight infantry. Sixty-fourth brigade, Thirty-second division, and is under command of Brig. Gen. Charles Boardman.

"Wisconsin troops shape up fine" declared Brig. Gen. W. C. Hann, camp commander. "They are a fine set of men and will make crack troops over there, when they go to do their bit."

Forty hours' drill weekly is the schedule for Wisconsin guards. Classes in French are under way. Trench-digging and bayonet drill is part of the work.

The boys are living in tents and are not so well situated as the men at Custer. Provision will be made, however, for the winter months.

WILL GUARDS DON BLUE UNIFORMS?

Members of the new state guards are awaiting word from Washington as to the interpretation of recent orders which may bar them from wearing the khaki uniform of the regular army, it being planned it is said, to have the guard uniformed in the blue uniform of the former National Guard which was in vogue up to recently, and which it is said, the various states have a number on hand.

Under the recent rulings, each company of state guards is furnished with but sixty-five uniforms at the each company may muster as high as 150 men. In instances where the enrollment runs over sixty-five, officers of the companies say that some means will have to be provided whereby additional uniforms may be secured.

REWARD OFFERED FOR DESERTERS

The provost marshal general has issued the following memorandum relative to the capturing and detention of deserters, all who fail to report to local exemption boards when called being classified as such: "A reward of fifty dollars is payable for the delivery to the nearest army camp or post of a deserter. This is in full satisfaction of all expenses incurred in said delivery. A person who fails to report to his local board for military service at the time specified in his order to report is a deserter. A person who fails to report for military service to the adjutant general of the state by the date specified in the order of the adjutant general to said persons is a deserter. It is highly desirable from every standpoint that an effort now be made to round up all persons who are delinquent in reporting for military service. If, after such persons are brought to a military authority, it appears to the military authority that their delinquency is not wilful they will be forwarded to a mobilization camp and their local board will be given credit. If it appears that the delinquency was wilful they will be prosecuted before court martial as deserters. In either case the reward is payable."

OCTOBER 21, 1917

For the cause that lacks assistance;
For the wrong that needs resistance;
For the future in the distance
And the good that we can do."

Mayor John Purroy Mitchell, of New York City, democrat, defeated in the republican primaries for re-nomination, announced publicly from the steps of the city hall that he would run as the fusion candidate on an issue of straight Americanism.

The office of Attorney General Owen is literally deluged with inquiries regarding milk combinations. From all sections of the state information is that legal action is close at hand.
Deputy Attorney General Waller Drew has charge of the matter.

SKIM MILK AS FOOD
Altho skim milk is recognized as having great value in feeding animals, the United States Department of Agriculture points out that its value as human food should be kept in mind. By substituting grain, green feed, buttermilk, and whey in animal feeding, much skim milk may be left for human use as a beverage in cooking, condensing, or for making cottage cheese. Only the surplus of this valuable human food should be fed to stock.

While skim milk is good for stock the fact remains that its highest efficiency can not be had thru turning it into meat. Skim milk is used most economically in animal production when fed to hogs, yet it takes 20 pounds when fed alone to produce 1 pound of pork. The same quantity will make 3 pounds of cottage cheese. In addition, cottage cheese contains 1 1/2 times as much protein and one third as much energy as pork, so that the skim milk in the cheese form gives quite as much energy and 4 1/2 times as much protein as it would if converted into ham or bacon.

DR. LALLY WEDS APPLETON GIRL

The marriage of Dr. Raymond Lally, son of Mr. Martin Lally of this city, to Miss Lenore Woelz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Woelz, Appleton, Wis., was solemnized at 7:30 o'clock Thursday morning, October 4, at St. Mary's church Appleton. The Rev. Fr. Fitzmaurice performed the ceremony. Miss Virginia Lally and Ralph Woelz were the attendants. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, at which only the immediate family were present.

Dr. and Mrs. Lally left for points south after which they will be at home in Appleton where Dr. Lally is engaged in the practice of dentistry. Mr. Martin Lally, the Misses May, Grace, Evelyn and Virginia Lally were present at the ceremony. Dr. Lally grew to manhood in Rhinelander and graduated from the high school. He later completed the dental course at Marquette University. Since locating in Appleton he has been very successful. His bride is one of Appleton's highly regarded young ladies and a member of one of that city's leading families.

Congratulations are forthcoming from Dr. Lally's host of Rhinelander friends.

ANTONE KOLSTAD - PASSES AWAY

Antone Kolstad, one of Rhinelander's well known carpenters, passed away early Thursday morning at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Goldstrand, 303 Mason street. Death was due to heart disease and followed a brief illness.

Mr. Kolstad had made this city his home for a number of years and leaves a large list of friends to mourn his passing. He was 72 years of age and a wife and four children survive him.

The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon from the Norwegian Lutheran church.

Was Frog Legs in Wireless Telegraphy.

The latest craze in science in the electrical world is the utilization of animals instead of metals for the purpose of recording messages taken from the air. Going back to the earliest days of electrical investigation, it was noted that the nervous system experimented with frog legs, so the practice was taken up in connection with wireless telegraphy. It is found that by connecting the sensitive nerve of the frog's leg with the microphone circuit of the receiver, an ideal detector is obtained. One end of the leg is fixed to a base and the opposite end connected with a pivoted lever so as to record on a slowly revolving drum the number of drum the electrical impulses caused by the electric impulses. It also has been discovered that the human stomach is extremely sensitive to electric signals and that it will better detect light shocks than any galvanometer or similar device now in use.

So Forgetful.

The Other Thing—I sent a post card to Tom last week and forgot to put his name and address on it. He must have thought me an awful silly when he got it."

Curious Cause of Fire.

How a terrible fire that gutted an entire New York tenement house was caused by the combination of a milk bottle, a lamp and a peaceful tabby cat is one of the incidents brought out in an article on "Curious Fires," by Charles T. Hill in St. Nicholas. The cat in question was reposing in the open back window of a first-floor flat in the tenement occupied by a spinster who was called into the front room just at the moment when an irate lodger in the house in the rear, exasperated by the nocturnal concert of two undomesticated tabbies on the rear fence, shied a milk bottle at them which landed wide of its mark and crashed against the tenement window sill. The spinster's tabby, dazed with fright, gave one fearful leap, clutched at the table cover and overturned the lamp.

Where It Started.

Shortly after the coroner's jury brought in its verdict, one of Adam's neighbors slipped into the office of the Eden Daily News and cornered the editor. "Now for goodness' sake don't put anything about this little affair in the paper," he said. "Cain always has been a good boy, and this little occurrence will not amount to much. Anyway he's had his lesson. The family will patch it up. If you give it a chance, Adam has been a pretty respectable person most of his life, and my wife says that Eve is sick over it. Now, for the sake of the family, please keep it out of the paper."—Emporia Gazette.

Benefits of Sleep.

Sleep is not a matter of convenience, but a necessity. It should be made a comfort and the sleeping room should be the most pleasing place to its occupant of all places in the house. Far more time is spent in the sleeping room than in any other place during the course of 24 hours. Almost every healthy adult requires eight hours' sleep, if the system is kept up to its highest standards of health, and many require several hours more. The bedroom should be a place of rest, quiet, comfort, cheer, quiet in coloring and tone, soothing in its fitness to the character of the occupant. It should be conducive to repose, to happy thoughts as companions to the land of sleep.

Opinions.

Every man is entitled to his opinion, but not every man is entitled to impose his opinion on his neighbor.—Buffalo Times.

Oldest Fort in the New World.

It is a fascinating experience to visit Santo Domingo and wander amid the ruins of the ancient city, from the fortifications of Homestead, the oldest in the new world, to the first stone church built on this side of the Atlantic, and to the tomb of the great discoverer. Nowhere else in this hemisphere are there scenes fraught with more historical significance to Americans than here, where Columbus had his hour of triumph and his hour of sorrow, and where, when he had embarked upon the great voyage from which he would never return to endure the fickle favor of petty princes, his ashes finally found repose.

It Paid.

Mrs. Skinner keeps a boarding house where, it is whispered, the guests are by no means too well fed. One of her neighbors took it upon herself to point out to the estimable lady the error of her ways. "I should think," said she, "you'd do well to feed your boarders a little better. You can't expect them to say a good word for you when they leave." "Oh, but they do," was the quick reply. "Almost every one of them has a grudge against some friend or other, and he invariably recommends my house to him. I get lots of new boarders in that way."—Philadelphia Record.

Delta of the Danube.

Sixty miles from the sea begins the delta of the Danube. The Killa, the most northern of the branches into which the river divides, carries more than two-thirds of the volume of its water to the sea, but is not deep enough for the more important traffic, which moves by the more direct, branch through the middle of the delta to Sulina. Here a natural channel of 7 to 11 feet has been increased to 20, and long dikes stretch out to sea and carry off the silt. Although it discharges less than 7 per cent of the Danube's waters, the Sulina channel carries a shipping which multiplied tenfold between 1861 and 1902. It was steadily increasing with a promise of future prosperity when the war interfered. The Danube Steam Navigation company was reporting 2,000,000 tons a year previous to 1914.

Look for the Best.

You will find it less easy to uproot faults than to choke them by gaining virtues. Do not think of your faults; still less of others' faults; in every person who comes near you look for what is good and strong; honor that; rejoice in it; and your faults will drop off, like dead leaves, when their time comes.—Ruskin.

Wonder of the Rose.

What service has the rose rendered to our ancestors that we should admire it beyond all rational measure? Did it feed them, clothe them, warm them, or serve to deck some otherwise unattractive maid and win for her a wooer? Did our ancestors, whether beasts or human progenitors of retreating skull and tussock teeth, breathe in its beauty and take fresh courage for the battle of life? Can it be by chance that man has come to find in a flower the great symbol of beauty? Why is not the fruit more beautiful to him than the flower? Why not the vegetable than the fruit? Why not the fish than the vegetable, or a lamb chop most beautiful of all?—Henry Dwight Sedgwick, in the Atlantic.

Could Not Be Spared.

Helen got into the bad habit of running away to some of her playmates' homes, and her mamma finally put a stop to it by tying her up a few times as a punishment. The other day she wanted a new rope to replace a broken and worn-out one on her sled, but her father wasn't able to locate one around the house. Then Helen said: "I know where there's a piece of rope, but that's the one mamma ties me up with when I run away."

Found Inspiration in Walking.

Goethe could not compose except while walking. Jean-Jacques Rousseau said: "There is something in the act of walking which animates and enlivens my ideas; I can scarcely think while I remain still. My body must be in motion so that my brain may be. The sight of the countryside, the succession of agreeable views, the open air, the fine appetite which I gain in walking, all this liberates my soul and gives me greater boldness of thought." But the ideas formulated in the walks frequently found expression in the long hours of the night when he was suffering with insomnia.

His Forbearance.

"Well—ha! ha! — Colonel White says, in this letter of recommendation, that you are a worthless, lying, incompetent, dishonest, drunken lumberer of the earth, and—" "Uck! Do de cuhnel specify all dat? Uh—well, sah, de gentleman 'poses a pow'ful sight o' confidence in me. He organizes dat I could say suppin' 'bout him, too, sah, but he knows I won't do it."—Kansas City Star.

Best of Beautifiers.

Cheerfulness and content are great beautifiers and are famous preservers of youthful looks.—Dickens.

CASE 9-18

KEROSENE

TRACTOR

THIS kerosene burning tractor is especially well adapted to a large variety of operations, both traction and belt work.

It is practical for small, medium or large farms.

This size is rated at 9 H. P. on the draw bar and 18 on the brake, but it will develop much in excess of that.

In developing 9 H. P. on the draw bar, with the tractor traveling at the rate of 2 1/4 miles per hour, a pull of 1500 pounds is delivered. This is more than is ordinarily required in pulling a two-bottom plow 7 or 8" deep. This tractor is capable of exerting a pull of 2100 pounds which at 2 1/4 miles would be over 12 H. P. This represents the overload capacity which is so essential for the successful operation of a tractor.

A two 14-inch bottom plow is recommended for this tractor.

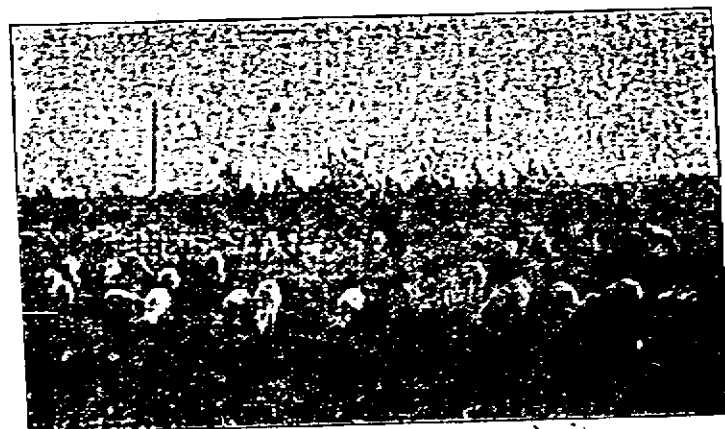

It will also pull with ease, under ordinary conditions, the following implements 8-foot binder, 24-shoe grain drill, 6 sections spike tooth harrow, 8 or 9-foot disc harrow, and all other implements that require four to six big horses to operate.

It furnishes a very satisfactory power for road work, dragging, operating a light grader, etc. In hauling it will handle 5 to 6 tons on ordinary roads.

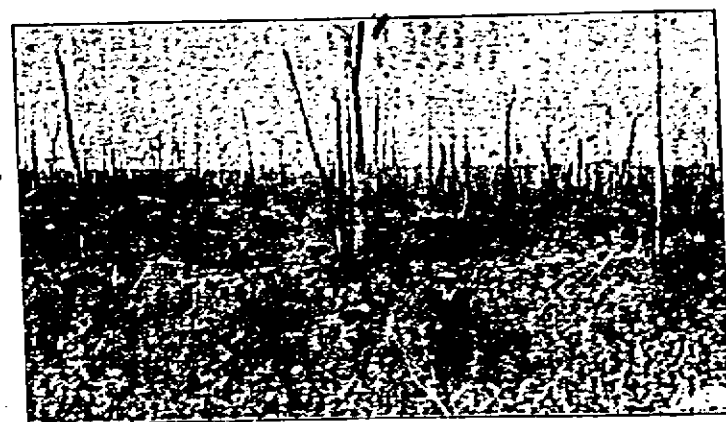

The Case 9-18 tractor is equally satisfactory for belt work. It will handle the ordinary 20" cylinder grain thresher, with hand feed and common stacker, and will operate feed mills, hay presses, small ensilage cutters, etc.

DON'T LOSE YOUR JOB

You know how important a part your eyes play with your daily work. You may not know how much your work has to do with the condition of your eyes. Constant application, under adverse conditions of light, weakens the eyes, and it is equally true that if your eyes fail you, you cannot do your work properly. Your employer will not stop to consider that you may have ruined your eyes in his service—that you have overworked them. If you are unfit for your work it is natural to assume that he will get another in your place. Don't Lose Your Job! Call and Consult Me.

A large electric sign now adorns the front of Lambert's ice cream parlor, 26 S. Brown street. The sign is one of the most attractive in this city.

JAP "SISTER" IS NOW IN TOILS

The following taken from a recent issue of the Lake County News of Hammond, Ind., may prove of interest to residents of this section. It is said that this Japanese, disguised as a sister, visited logging camps near Rhinelander last winter and received much money in contributions.

Hammond Catholic people were amazed by the announcement that "Sister Mary Louise," who had visited the county soliciting funds for Japan missions, had been unmasked at Lafayette as a male Jap, having been detected in shaving himself.

"Sister Mary Louise" had made trips to Hammond, the last about two weeks ago and had been well received by all Catholic people. Peculiar to Sisters, the Jap traveled alone and when in the city lived mostly at private homes, instead of as is usual with Sisters, to make headquarters with some body of Sisters in the community. More than one Catholic family is now pondering over the good meals they fed the Jap under the belief that they were entertaining a Sister engaged in a worthy work.

Contributions were numerous and freely made by the Catholic people of Hammond and other parts of Lake county, and it is reported that the Jap was arrested and on his person was found a very large sum of money. Many Hammond people are yet doubtful of the affair and cling to the possibility of a mistake, as they are loathe to confess that they were so completely duped by the smooth Jap with feminine voice and features, and who so perfectly carried off the role of a sister.

You Must Depend Upon A Store's Reputation in These Days of Higher Costs

In these times of daily fluctuation of prices, women must look about them for a RELIABLE store—one whose past reputation as well as present store policy are such that they can depend upon.

Our reputation dates back to 18 years ago, the time when we first opened store in this city. Through this entire period, serving our customers faithfully has been our uppermost endeavor. This means having such merchandise as they wanted, selling those goods under pleasant conditions, with courteous service; and most important of all, providing worth-while values every day of the year.

SAILORS RETURN TO NAVY

Lionel and Arthur Reausseau, sailors off the Battleship Louisiana, departed Wednesday night for New York City to resume their naval service after a short visit with their parents, Mr and Mrs. Charles Reausseau. The brothers have been in the navy for nearly a year and are greatly taken up with the life. They are anxious to have something doing so they can enjoy the taste of a real naval battle.

Metal Long in Use.

Tin was known to the Hebrew metal workers as an alloy of other metals as early as the time of Moses. There was no tin in Palestine. Their tin in the time of David was obtained from Tyre and Tyre was supplied by the ships that traded with Tarshish. This tin came from Spain, but doubtless the greater quantity came from the tin districts of Britain.

KEROSENE AND LIQUOR FATAL

Oil sprinkled on a choppy sea will cause a calm, it is said. Judging from the sad experience of Albert Start, oil will also cause death, if taken to quell a turmoil in the stomach after a long bout with alcohol.

Start, who was a woodsman, had been under the influence of liquor for several days, it is alleged. Sunday while at one of the local hotels he took a liberal dose of kerosene, with the probable expectation that it would end the storm raging within him, and it certainly did. He became violently ill and was taken to the hospital where he died Sunday evening. Whether it was the liquor or the Rockefeller product that killed Start, physicians are unable to determine, but they do agree that the two made a rather unhealthy combination.

Start was about fifty years of age and nothing can be ascertained regarding his relatives. The body was shipped to Wisconsin University.

Two divorce cases were acted on by Judge A. H. Reid in circuit court this week.

Mrs. Gladys Davis was granted separation from Stanley Davis, who is serving time in prison.

Herman Berlin was given a divorce from Carrie Berlin.

PREVENT FIRES AND ACCIDENTS

Next Tuesday has been designated by Gov. Philipp as "Fire and Accident Prevention Day." In a proclamation just issued he calls upon the property owners of the state and nation to clean up rubbish, that fires may be prevented. A copy of his proclamation with other data prepared by State Superintendent C. P. Cary will be sent to every school in the state this week. Gov. Philipp's proclamation designating Oct. 9 as fire prevention day declares:

"In this crisis of the nation's life the question of conserving our resources, both natural and otherwise, is of vital importance. While the naval and military forces of the land are defending liberty, democracy and national existence, and in doing so sacrificing their lives and substance, it is meet and necessary to call the attention of all to the unnecessary loss of lives and property at home which the state and nation can ill afford at the present time.

"The annual report of the state fire marshal for the year 1916, shows a fire loss for that year of nearly six million dollars, $5,911,115 a month and $16,251,741 a day. Statistics further show many injuries and lives lost in fires.

"Further the industrial expansion, due to the war has increased the number of employees, and especially those without experience, and has speeded up men and machines. In the fever of produce, both employers and employees have forgotten safety cautions and movements; so industrial accidents have increased. Now the conservation of resources and the safety and protection of workmen has become a national necessity and a patriotic duty of all."

The proclamation then calls upon appropriate exercises, and urges mayors of all cities to affect a general clean-up of combustible waste.

DEATH COMES TO MRS. A. C. BLITCH

Mrs. A. C. Blicht, one of the early residents of this city, died at three o'clock this afternoon in St. Mary's hospital. She had been ill two weeks.

Mrs. Blicht leaves three children who have the sympathy of the community in the loss of their mother.

The remains will be taken to Grand Rapids, Wis., for interment.

"Hooverize" for Health
Personal interest, as well as patriotism, dictates a hearty response to Mr. Hoover's program of partial fast days. As has been frequently noted in this column, most Americans have, in the past, been eating too much. It will not hurt us a bit, therefore, as a part of our contribution to national defense to endure a trifling privation or to develop a taste for perfectly good articles of food which have not been popularized, hitherto.

There is something about the Hoover idea and the manner in which the people are responding to it that suggests a spirit of what might almost be called religious consecration. This in turn suggests the part that fasting has played in practically all of the old religions. There is very good reason for believing that, as the religious rite, it has had as great health and political significance as religious. In the early days of civilization, the priests, as the best educated persons in their respective communities, were the physicians and health officers as well as religious leaders. This being so, what could have been more natural or commendable than that they should have given to some of their health rules, the force of sacred religious exercises and discipline?

It may be true, also, that in their function as statesmen their regulations were inspired in part as food conservation measures similar to our present one. Certainly one cannot read the Old Testament without being impressed that famines were frequent enough to cause grave concern to the public leaders and teachers. Nothing is detracted from the force of fasting either as a religious or a patriotic exercise by the knowledge that it is a health exercise as well. Possibly, it will be shown some day that the general participation in wheatless and meatless days has contributed something toward cutting down the prevalence of kidney and heart diseases which have apparently been very much on the increase for the past few years. If so, this would be some payment for the direct suffering and loss of life war is responsible for.

SOO TO BUILD TO MILWAUKEE

The Soo railroad will build a line from Rugby Junction to Milwaukee and will erect a passenger depot and a freight house in Milwaukee at a cost of $6,000,000, when business conditions have become normal.

L. J. Pennington of Minneapolis, president of the road, gave this information during a visit in Milwaukee. Mr. Pennington had a conference with Frederick D. Underwood, president of the Erie railroad at Mr. Underwood's home in Watonsa, and these two, together with several other railroad officials had dinner on board Mr. Pennington's private car at the Union depot at Milwaukee.

The main line of the Soo between Minneapolis and Chicago passes through Rugby Junction in Washington county, about thirty miles northwest of Milwaukee. From Rugby Junction, Soo trains go into Milwaukee over the Milwaukee lines.

The Soo has been buying property along Clybourn street between Fifth and Syrean streets. Mr. Pennington said the railroads were unable to buy any equipment because the manufacturers are turning out war products. He declared the railroads ought to get higher rates, as farmers and others were getting higher rates for their products. Mr. Pennington said there was a shortage of 3,000,000 tons of coal in Minneapolis.

WHAT CATARRH IS

It has been said that every third person has catarrh in some form.

Science has shown that nasal catarrh often indicates a general weakness of the whole system, and snuffs and vapors do little, if any good.

To correct catarrh you should enrich your blood with the oil-food in Scott's Emulsion which is a medicinal food and a building tonic, free from alcohol or any harmful drugs. Try it—YOU! Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

GARDEN PRIZE TO MRS. ST. GERMAIN

Lac du Flambeau Woman Wins Second Honors In National Contest

The two first prizes for canned vegetables from war gardens awarded to Indian fairs by the National Emergency Food Garden commission, of Washington, were Friday given to Alice Ladd Haffoy, Dulce, N. M., and Mrs. Isabelle St. Germain, Lac du Flambeau, Wis., states a Washington D. C. dispatch.

A check for $5.00 and a National Certificate of Merit was forwarded to each of these ladies by Charles Lathrop Pack, president of the commission.

The commission received a letter from Mrs. W. F. Cody, of Cody, Wyo., widow of the famous Indian scout, Buffalo Bill, requesting an allotment of the commission's manuals on food conservation. A consignment of home drying, canning and storing manuals were rushed to her.

At the Indian fairs in both towns there were extensive exhibits of canned foodstuffs grown by the Indians in their war gardens. J. W. Balmer, superintendent of the Indian agency at Lac du Flambeau, Wis., writes P. S. Ridsdale, secretary of the commission, that the "Indians showed great enthusiasm over the fact that they had increased their acreage and were helping to do their 'bit' for our country."

In endeavoring to encourage food conservation work among the Indians the commission has distributed, through Cato Sells, head of the Indian affairs department of the government, more than 40,000 pamphlets on food canning, drying and storing. These manuals have been widely circulated in the Indian schools, and reports received from these schools indicate that the Indian patterned after the white man this summer in stocking up for the winter.

MRS. SMITH RECOMMENDS CHAMBERLAIN'S TABLETS

"I have had more or less stomach trouble for eight or ten years," writes Mrs. G. H. Smith, Brewerton, N. Y. "When suffering from attacks of indigestion and heaviness after eating one or two of Chamberlain's Tablets have always relieved me. I have also found them a pleasant laxative." These tablets tone up the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. If you are troubled with indigestion give them a trial, get well and stay well.

"An Eye for an Eye."
"Lex talionis" means the law of retaliation. It provided that the punishment should be the same in kind as the crime. Thus we have the expressions, "An eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth," "Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed." Many other expressions like these are found in the Bible and elsewhere.

Treenails.
"Treenails," or "trunnels," as they are commonly called, are cylindrical wooden pins used in fastening the parts of wooden ships together. It requires about 20,000 of these pins to an average sized ship.

Papyrus Books.
Early writers made use of their cotton fabrics, of skins and even scales of fishes for writing. For a period papyrus was used, the book being made in rolls, being about one-half foot wide and sometimes a foot long. Papyrus was a bulb growing ten feet high, found in marshes of Egypt; from its inner part the form of paper called papyrus was made. Papyrus sheets were joined, attached to a stick and upon it (where we have our "volumes") from the Latin volume roll. The titles were written on the outside of the rolls. The rolls were kept in round wooden boxes.

Music Kills Men Young.
Painting and sculpture are conduits to long life. Yet music kills a young man. Schubert, with all his wealth of song, died at thirty-one; Mozart, danced and loved his melodies, died at thirty-five, the same age as Beethoven; Chopin, the composer of "Carmen," died like Purcell, at the same age; Mendelssohn survived to the age of thirty-eight, who loved life so much had done with it at thirty-nine; Weber expired at the age of forty; Schumann at forty-six. But Verdi lived and flourished as a nonpareil.

Why England is Called John Bull.
Every country has a nickname, and is represented in pictures by an animal. The British lion is the animal which stands for England, and John Bull is its owner and master. The lion is the country; John Bull is the nation. The name John Bull comes from a work written by John Arbuthnot, a witty doctor and writer, a great friend of Swift and Pope. He was born in Scotland in 1697 and died in 1735. The sketch that he wrote dealt with the political affairs of Europe at the time and the countries were made to appear as if they were men and women.

Turtles and Their Eggs.
Turtles which weigh more than 150 pounds are not in demand, as the flesh becomes coarse with age. But these reptiles grow to 200 pounds and measure seven feet in length. The eggs of the green turtle, a great delicacy, are generally deposited in the sand in nests of clay. If not found by man or eaten by rats or birds they are hatched out by the heat of the sun in about eight or nine weeks, and the young turtles are carried to the sea, where many of them fall victims to crabs or other fish.

GRACE LALLY, Supervising Assistant, Rhinelander, Wis.

ALL CAN HELP WIN WAR

"One way in which we can help win the war is to eat less of the food which our armies will need in the field and more of the foods of which we have an abundance and to waste less of all foods," says State Food Controller Magnus Swenson. "We must increase the exports of our food products made from milk. Use all of the milk. Waste no part of it. The children must have whole milk, therefore, use less cream. There is a great waste of food by not using all skim and sour milk. Sour milk can be used in cooking and to make cottage cheese. Use buttermilk and cheese freely. The American people are not being asked to starve themselves. Eat plenty, but wisely, and without waste. But do your part to help Wisconsin save food for the nation."

TO ATTEND SYNOD

Father Campbell Gray of St. Augustine's church will be in Fond du Lac on October 9 to attend the missionary synod of the province of the middle west at St. Paul's Cathedral. Seventeen bishops, sixty priests and sixty laymen will be present.

The Right Reverend William Leonard of Cleveland will preside at the synod. A dinner is planned at Trinity parish, Oshkosh, on one evening of the convocation.

IS ACADEMY PRESIDENT

Alexander Bernstein, who is now spending his third year at the Augustana College and academy, has been elected by a unanimous vote as president of the entire academy which consists of six divisions.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL

Sunday School at 10 o'clock. Morning service at 11 o'clock.

Topic: "The Quest of a Great Soul." Epworth League at 6:45 prompt.

Evening service at 7:30. Topic: "What the Church expects of its people."

The Sacrament of the Lord's supper will be administered at both services.

You are cordially invited to attend these services. Remember the church is the best institution the world has ever known from every standpoint—moral, economic and political.

It stands for the unity and sanctity of the home, for justice, righteousness and good government and is the instigator of all true benevolence. The value of the church no man can estimate.

That is so, then let us stand by it and attend its services. Be sure and go to church next Sunday.

Rev. William Wilson, Pastor.

How Franklin Learned Manners. Franklin collected thirteen principles to cover the small amenities of daily life. Each week he picked out one and practiced it diligently, thus creating a habit. It took three months to cover them all. Each year he practiced each one four full weeks. He kept this for many years. The uncouth Franklin of early manhood who found fault with his wife for giving him a silver spoon and a china bowl for his bread and milk instead of a pewter spoon and earthenware crock, developed into the statesman and man of the world who won the respect of Englishmen, the admiration of Frenchmen and the gratitude of Americans.

The Electric Generator. Professor Alexander Gray of Cornell university claims for G. S. Moler, then a student at Cornell, the honor of having made one of the first practical applications of the electric generator in America. This was in 1875, when the university was not more than seven years old, and Moler was not yet a graduate.

Yet he illuminated the whole campus, and thus it came about that the inhabitants of remote farms among the hills of central New York saw the first light shine at night years before the introduction of this means of illumination in Paris, London, Berlin, New York or any other of the great cities of the world.

CHARGED WITH NETTING FISH. On the charge of netting fish without a license, Joseph Leiner of Pelican Lake, was arraigned before Judge C. F. Smith, in municipal court, Monday, and plead not guilty. His case was continued until October 9. Bail was placed at $500.

SELLS MORE LANDS. C. Eby has sold 480 acres of cut over lands in the town of Hazelhurst 38.5 to Chicago parties, who will improve same. He will start clearing this fall for spring crops.

Parties will stock part of the land with sheep. This is a move in the right direction.

Acting on information furnished by Dr. H. L. Garner, Sheriff Hans Rodd, Friday afternoon, arrested a foreigner giving the name of Gustave Schiwe on the ground that he was a slacker.

Schiwe is a laborer about 22 years of age and gave his residence as Chicago. He claimed to have registered on June 5 but had lost his card. Sheriff Rodd notified Chicago authorities and received a telegram in reply requesting that the young man be held pending an investigation. After two days nothing was heard from Chicago and Sheriff Rodd released Schiwe.

Looking for Virtues.

When you have a mind to divert your fancy, consider the good qualities of your acquaintances; as the enterprising vigor of this man, the modesty of another, the liberality of a third, and so on. For there is nothing so entertaining as a lively image of the virtues exhibited in the character of those we converse with, occurring as numerous as possible. Let this, therefore, be always at hand.—Marcus Aurelius Antoninus.

The Woodlot.

The farm woodlot can furnish work for men and teams during the winter months when other work is scarce. Besides aiding the farmer on the labor question, the woodlot can supply a portion of the building material, the bulk of the repair material and a large part, if not all, of the fuel used on the average farm. In addition, the well-kept woodlot may be made a source of outside income through sales of timber, ties or fuel wood.

Slightly Mixed.

There is a good anecdote of an Irishman giving the password at the battle of Fontenoy, at the time the great Saxe was marshal. "The password is Saxe; now, don't forget it," said the colonel. "Saxe; faith, I won't. Wasn't my father a miller?" "Who goes there?" cried the sentry, after he had arrived at the pass. The Irishman looked as confidential as possible and whispered in a sort of Low: "Bogs, for honor."

Thrift Thought.

Get the thrift habit—the broad thrift habit, now; practice it thoughtfully; waste not the little things; find the joy that a growing bank account brings; invest your savings safely and profitably; remember tomorrow but forget not today; spend for the things that last and find the secret of the broader thrift that makes for better living. It is the only thrift worth while.

Mistletoe in History

Scoured in the very wellsprings of pagan antiquity, the mistletoe has become a cherished token of Christmas festivity and romance; and though its traditions long antedate the birth of Christ and of Christianity, according to some scholars the very names of Christ and Christmas spring from the Celtic radicals Chris—holly, pure, or Cristo—the sun—for among the Druids the gathering of the mistletoe was the holiest episode in the grand annual festival instituted in honor of the birth of the New Sun (Son), being consecrated to newborn infants and to the spiritual idea of marriage.

Idiosyncrasies of Writers.

Few writers are without personal peculiarities in the manner and time of their composition. Often they believe that these idiosyncrasies have an important bearing on the quality of the work of writing, and recommend them to others. Of living writers we hear every month or so that he, or she, cannot compose except while riding horseback or rowing a boat, or locked up in a room without food. Some writers are frank enough to acknowledge that they regard their work as a business and carry it on, inspiration or no, in an office, surrounded by sordid commercialism. But wherever and however done the work turned out seems to be little affected by the time and place of doing it. Great writers have written at night and others equally as great have shown preference for the daylight hours.

Where Blacking Gets Odor.

Shoeblacking, says the Scientific American, owes its peculiar aromatic odor, faintly suggestive of the deep woods, where spruce and hemlock needles pad the ground, to an oil which is manufactured from this same kind of needles. The greater part of this oil is distilled in New England during the winter.

BAR SOCIALIST PAPER FROM MAILS

The Milwaukee Leader, the official mouthpiece of the socialist party in Milwaukee, the editor of which is Victor L. Berger, was barred from the mails in Milwaukee on Wednesday as a result of an order received by Postmaster F. H. Schutz from A. M. Dockery, third assistant postmaster general, declaring the publication to be in violation of the espionage law.

The order states that a hearing was given the publisher (Mr. Berger) on Sept. 22, and an opportunity given him to show cause why the authorization for admission of the Leader to the second class of mail matter should not be revoked.

Mr. Berger announced that since the order was signed by the third assistant, he would appeal at once to Postmaster General Burleson and that he expected to have his answer to the government's order ready in three days.

CLYDE CLARK TAKES A WIFE

Clyde Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Clark of 820 Carr street, has strayed from the path of single blessedness. He has taken for his bride Miss Emily Cornette, of this city. Rev. B. G. Clemens performed the marriage service at his home in the town of Pelican Wednesday evening. The young couple were attended by Miss Anna Vanness and John Vanness.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark will make their residence in this city, where numerous friends wish them good fortune.

The Formidable Tom.

A writer, traveling on foot through the southern mountains studying the people for literary purposes, came upon a man of whom he sought information as to the location of a certain cabin where he had been advised to put up for the night. "You-all goin' there?" asked the man. "Well, Tom's a first-class man, take him just right, but he's mighty queer." "What do you mean?" "It's like this: Tom'll be settin' outside, most likely, an' he'll see you-all, an' if you-all don't suit him he may set the dawg on yu. Ef he don't and you gits to talkin' with him, and say anything he don't like he may throw you down an' tramp on you-all. But ef you-all's too careful in your talk, on the other hand, he's liable to git suspicious an' take you-all for a spy an' use his gun fust an' listen to explanations afterward. But it ain't no use tryin' to git by without stopping. Ef you-all was to try that, it would be all up, for he'd think you-all was proud an' haughty. Ef you-all wants to come outter the mountain whole, don't go past Tom's cabin without stopping, whatever you do."—New York Times.

Recommends Whale Steak.

Seized with a realization that three-fourths of the surface of the earth is water and virtually a waste as far as production of varieties of diet is concerned, it has occurred to a resourceful mind that the mammals of the sea are worthy of cultivation as food, says the Popular Science Monthly. It is estimated that the meat of one 60-foot whale, for instance, is equal to that of 70 head of cattle and tastes like choicest beefsteak in flavor, when properly prepared. Other marine mammals which are good for food as well as for commercial purposes are the seal, the walrus, the dugong and the sea cow. The dugong has always been prized for food by Asiatics, Africans and Australians, and the sea cow formerly found in the waters of the Bering sea was so noted for the palatableness of its flesh, its size and for its gentle fearlessness of man that it has been almost entirely exterminated through man's greed.

Deference.

That of all the points of good breeding I most require and insist upon is deference. I like that every chair be a throne and hold a king. I prefer a tendency to stateliness, to an excess of fellowship. Let the incommunicable objects of nature and the metaphysical isolation of man teach us independence. Let us not be too much acquainted. I would have a man enter his house through a hall filled with heroic and sacred sculptures, that he might not want the hint of tranquility and self-poise. We should meet each morning as if from foreign countries, and spending the day together, should depart at night, as into foreign countries. In all things I would have the island of a man inviolate. Let us sit apart as the gods, talking from peak to peak all around Olympus.—Emerson.

Now That We Know.

An eminent mycologist declares that we are in no danger of mistaking poisonous toadstools for mushrooms if we are careful to eat only the chestnut-colored boletus, the involute boletus, the platinged ink-cap, the beefsteak mushrooms, the pine-cone boletus, Mary's mushroom, the edible chanterel and the honey spore. Now that we know what's what, why should we view the mushroom with alarm?—Green's News.

Season for Rejoicing.

Righteousness tried by adversity has good grounds for glorying in its sorrow.—Orid.
